"My music is very personal, and in its intimacy, I hope to touch and affect others"

Biography

Paul is a Vancouver-based singer/songwriter/actor, best known for his solo intimate performances of his folk rock music with vocals and piano. His highly-personal original songs are based on his life experiences, with lyrics that explore family, relationships, life, and give inspiration to a younger generation. He has appeared in over 40 films and commercials and has graced many stages throughout Canada. Paul wrote and produced his touring musical show The Music of Junk performed on imaginative, invented instruments he built from junk and recycled materials. Paul also scored his two award-winning films, Everywhere But Here and The Walk, in which he starred, wrote, produced and directed. These films have toured North American film
